Bruce Hurta

Business Lending Manager

Bruce Hurta has extensive experience in Small Business Lending. He has served in a number of commercial lending and banking capacities in his career including President of a Houston-area community bank for 6 years, and management of Independence Funding Company, a non-bank start-up in 1994, where he developed his SBA lending expertise.

Bruce spent 4 years as a bank examiner for the Texas Banking Department, 7 years in executive management at two community banks, and the last 20 years as a specialty SBA Lender. He is active in the commercial realtor and business brokerage communities, along with various business and industry organizations.

In July 2009, he joined Members Choice Credit Union as the Business Lending Manager to lead their new SBA Lending Program. In June 2014, he received the Financial Services Champion of the Year Award from SCORE Houston and the U.S. Small Business Administration's Houston District Office.

Bruce is the past president and current board member of HAGGL (Houston Association of Government Guaranteed Lenders). He is a Houston SBA District SCORE Advisory Council member, serves on the University of Houston Small Business Development Center Network Advisory Board, holds a position on the Small Business Today Publishers Advisory Board, and is a Board Member of the Houston Chapter of the Texas Association of Business Brokers.
